

YOUTHFUL ROBBER MAKES SECOND BARRING ATTEMPT

BOY BANDIT DEAD GAME

Earl Bullock, Who Held Up the State Bank at Eudora, Kan., and Killed an Officer, Returns to the Little Town.

ROBS BANK AGAIN AND SHOOTS ANOTHER MAN

Shoots Himself Through Head to Avoid Capture—His Accomplice, 15 Years Old, Makes a Full Confession.

LATTER ESCAPES LYNCHING

Eudora, Kan., Nov. 12.—Driven to bay by an armed mob, Earl Bullock, the 17-year-old bandit of Lawrence, Kan., who twice within the last month has robbed the Eudora State bank and murdered a policeman and shot another man, probably fatally wounded himself in an attempt to commit suicide near here today.

Bullock's attempted suicide followed his second robbery of the bank here today, and his shooting of Fred Starr, cashier of the Kaw Valley State bank of Eudora, who was in the Eudora State bank with his day's clearings.

Accompanied by William McKay, 15 years of age, of Jacksonville, Ala., Bullock held up the bank. Although Starr showed no resistance to the holdup, Bullock shot him through the jaw. Snatching more than $800, Bullock fled, followed by his companion. Each youth had two revolvers.

Harry Wilson, cashier of the robbed bank, armed with a crowd of citizens armed with shotguns, rifles and revolvers, pursued the boy bandits across the fields. In charge of D. S. Wood, a deputy sheriff of Lawrence, the boys lost ground and a few minutes later the mob was at their heels.

One Boy Surrenders.

McKay surrendered, but Bullock, wrenching the revolver from his faltering partner's hands, sprang into a patch of wood. John Miller, a farmer in no way connected with the pursuit, stepped into Bullock's path and the boy, thinking him an enemy, fired. His shot missed Miller and the posse, seeing the youth was ready to shoot, fired a score of shots at him. Bullock returned the fire.
But realizing he was about to be captured, he shot himself through the head.
Meantime the crowd threatened to lynch McKay. Officers took him to the Lawrence jail in an automobile and placed him in jail.

Bullock's Previous Crime.

Bullock's previous holdup of the Eudora bank and the murder of Policeman Wilson Pringle took place on Oct. 15. While in charge of D. S. Wood, a deputy sheriff of Lawrence, who arrested the boy on a charge of robbing a second hand shop, Bullock drew two revolvers and forced Wood and Cahler Wilson into the bank vault. Snatching between $800 and $1,000, he fled.

That night Pringle was shot while attempting to arrest Bullock at his home in Lawrence. The Pringle was a deputy sheriff of Lawrence, who arrested the boy on a charge of robbing a second hand shop. Bullock drew two revolvers and
$1,000, he fled.

"MIDNIGHT" SUGAR FRAUDS NOW UNDER ARREST

James F. Bendoragale, an Official of Thirty Years' Standing, the Man Indicted.

New York, Nov. 12.—After months of quiet work by the government investigators, who had been scrutinizing the ins and outs of the complicated sugar frauds, there came suddenly today the indictment and arrest of an important official of the American Sugar Refining company, charged with conspiracy to defraud the government by false weighing of sugar.

The man arrested is James F. Bendoragale, the thirty years' superintendent of the Havemeyer & Elder refinery in Williamsburg, the largest plant of the American Sugar Refining company.
It is regarded as significant that Bendor-agale's resignation from this responsible position was announced by the company only yesterday. He was arrested this morning.

When arraigned before United States Commissioner Benedict and asked to give $500 bail for his appearance next Monday, Bendoragale produced the required amount in cash.

The indictment returned against Ben-doragale is of the blanket variety, including in its terms also the so-called "big six"—Oliver Spitzer, Thomas Kehoe, Edward A. Boyle, John M. Veiller, John R. Corley and Patrick J. Hennessy, all of whom have been previously indicted on

ONE MORE SKYSCRAPER

P. J. MORAN,
Who plans the erection of a skyscraper in Main street.

P. J. MORAN INVESTS IN MAIN STREET PROPERTY

Will Build Skyscraper, for Which Plans Are Being Considered.

Negotiations for the sale of seventy feet of Main street property, comprising Nos. 164, 166 and 168, were practically completed yesterday, whereby P. J. Moran buys the property for approximately $245,000. The property is now occupied by the Meheys Fur and Millinery store, Badger Bros., brokers, and Madam Brandwin, and it also includes the one-story building north of the Meheys store, the frontage being regarded as about the most valuable in the retail business district in Salt Lake. The price which is said to be $2,500 a front foot, is also about the record for Salt Lake business property, inasmuch as the buildings are not figured in the selling price.

Leases on the property expire within about four months and it is the intention of Mr. Moran to erect a large office building on the site next summer. With a frontage of seventy feet on Main street, the tract is 214 feet deep, and includes a right of way to the rear. The property was owned by S. H. Auerbach and is immediately south of the Auerbach department store.

There is a one-story building on the north twenty feet of the lot and another one-story building occupies the middle portion, these buildings being of comparatively little value, although on account of the location they have commanded high rentals. The south part of the lot bought by Mr. Moran contains the building erected in the early '90s for the Utah Savings and Trust company, and vacated by the company two years ago when it moved to its new quarters in Main street, between Second and Third South streets. This building on the Auerbach property cost about $20,000 and it is of fireproof construction and includes massive vaults.
Inasmuch as the sale of the property will not be completed until today or Monday, Mr. Moran has made only tentative plans regarding the erection of the Moran skyscraper and work on this building will not be started until next summer, after the present lease expires.

POWER SITES WITHDRAWN

Policy of Secretary Ballinger Pending Expected Legislation by Congress This Winter.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Secretary Ballinger today issued an order for the construction of the proposed power sites on public lands. Without waiting for legislation to learn what eventually will be done with many lands valuable for water power, the secretary withdrew from disposition more than 8,000 acres of such land located in Montana, Idaho, Colorado, Wyoming and New Mexico.

This land now being in the public domain will probably be affected by legislation to be enacted during the next congress. Until congress decides just what is to be done with the land and the terms upon which it is to be utilized, the secretary will keep a tight hold upon it.

The land is located as follows: 684 acres on Red Rock creek, Montana; 1,527 acres on Clark fork in Montana and Idaho; 2,884 acres on the Gunnison river and tributaries in Colorado and New Mexico; 1,408 acres on the Kikicik river in Washington; 200 acres along the Judith river in Montana, and 712 acres along the Green river and tributaries in Wyoming.

SERGEANT'S BLOODY ACT

Military Prison at Alcatraz Island, San Francisco Bay, Scene of a Tragedy.

San Francisco, Nov. 12.—A report was brought to this city today from the United States military prison at Alcatraz Island, that Quartermaster Sergeant Roy Ford, after killing Thomas Malloy, an army clerk, by hurling him from a window of the barracks to the rocks last night, blew out his own brains.

Friends heard the men quarrelling in an adjoining room and a short time thereafter they heard Mulloy utter a piercing cry as he was hurled from the window.
His neck was broken.

While the prison officers were examining the body, Ford appeared and announced that Mulloy had fallen from the window. When he was told that Mulloy was dead, Ford disappeared. While the body was being carried to the guard house a shot was heard and Ford was found dead in a nearby storeroom.

MATRIMONY ON PROSECUTION UNMERCIFUL

Former Young Salt Laker in Jail at Detroit Charged With Having Surplus of Wives.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Detroit, Mich., Nov. 12.—Although young in years Earl A. Thompson, aged 23, who occupies a cell in the central station, a confessed bigamist, has had enough matrimonial experience. Thompson married the second wife, who was Mary Ellen Davis, in Camden, N. J., in 1907. She says that Thompson then had a wife in Philadelphia from whom he had not been divorced. Thompson, however, says that he was divorced from the Philadelphia wife. Thompson and his bride came to Detroit and matrimonial troubles developed. He went to live at 17 Abbot street, where he met Miss Thompson, aged 18, whose parents live in Prattsville, Mich. Thompson married her on Nov. 18, this year. No divorce had been obtained from the Camden girl, who was in Detroit. Thompson says that he had married her, and that she had come to her a few days after he married Miss Hager and frankly admitted that he had married again. "The asked me to come to make trouble for him, that it might mean ten or fifteen years for him if he were arrested," he told me. "I told him I was glad to get rid of him." Detective Black and Wilson set out Friday to find the bride who was supposed to have made a complaint against Thompson.

ADVOCATE GENERAL DECLARED Mme. Steinheil Was a Born Liar, Whose Whole Life Jus- tified Presumption of Guilt.

DEFENSE SCORED POINT WHEN M. AUBIN SPOKE

Rumor That the Prisoner Intends to Address Jury in Her Own Behalf, and a Dramatic Climax to the Trial Expected

MAJORITY VOTE PREVAILS

Paris, Nov. 12.—The entire session of the Steinheil murder trial today was taken up with an impassioned plea by Advocate General Trouard Riolle for the conviction of the woman who is charged with having killed her husband and her stepmother. As Madame Steinheil's counsel, M. Aubin, is yet to be heard, doubt has arisen whether the case will go to the jury tomorrow.

The prosecutor showed neither pity nor mercy in his address to the jury.
He painted the accused woman in the blackest of colors—as a born liar and as one whose whole life, before and after the crime, justified the presumption of guilt. He developed the theory that after the rich and generous lover, Chouanard, abandoned her in 1907, Madame Steinheil realized she was almost at the end of her tether, and that when she got Maurice Borderel in her clutches she was determined to hold him fast at the price of murder.

SHOPMEN'S PAY RAISED

General Manager Clarke of the Rio Grande System Signs an Agreement.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Denver, Colo., Nov. 12.—The days of strikes and lockouts on the Denver & Rio Grande railroad are at an end. The new policy of friendly terms with the big labor organizations went into effect as soon as the new general manager, Horace W. Clarke, took the reins of command. After a week, an agreement has been signed with all of the shop organizations on the system, with the exception of the helpers' union. The boilermakers, machinists, blacksmiths and apprentices are given an increase of cents an hour. This is in comparison with the men having asked 5 cents. Mr.
Clarke has never had a strike during his railroad experience.

SUTHERLAND AT WORK

Junior Utah Senator in Washington to Engage in the Revision of the Laws.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—Senator George Sutherland has arrived in Washington from Utah to take up his senatorial duties. He is a member of the committee on revision of the laws, which will convene on Monday, and probably will hold daily sessions till congress opens. The law revision committee relates to the judiciary title and is a compilation of all the laws governing the organization of courts, their jurisdiction, the law of procedure, and the law of evidence. Senator Sutherland, who is regarded as one of the best lawyers in the country, will take an active part in this work and will give his close attention to the subjects under consideration. When asked about political conditions in Utah, he said he considered them very satisfactory from his standpoint. He is especially pleased with the manner in which President Taft was received throughout the west and particularly in Utah. Senator Sutherland and his family will make their home at the Highlands apartments this winter.

EASTERNERS TAKE OPTION

E. E. Richards & Company May Let Go of Utah Gold & Copper Mines Company.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
New York, Nov. 12.—Professor William H. Burr of Columbia university today closed a deal with E. E. Richards & Co. and other interests in the Utah Gold & Copper Mines company, whereby he takes an option on a controlling interest in the stock of the company. The option runs for thirty days and the professor is to be paid $1 a share. It is understood that an engineer representing the interests that contemplate going into the company with Burr will go to Utah with him within a few days and make an exhaustive examination of the property. Among the interests that are interested in the property in case the new interests come into control will be the rebuilding of a mill of 1,000 tons daily capacity and a railroad thirty miles long connecting the mines with Modena. It is said that most of the old directors of the company will retire if the new interests exercise their option.

MADE NO CONFESSION.

"Bud" Barnes Hanged in Prison at Walla Walla, Wash.

Walla Walla, Wash., Nov. 12.—Hazel W. "Bud" Barnes, who was hanged today at the penitentiary here for the murder of Mrs. Anna Aldrich, Barnes did not bravely and denied his guilt to the last.

Barnes was convicted on circumstantial evidence. On his second trial, he was accused of having killed Mrs. Aldrich, aged 70, in April, 1908, to rob her home in Copper canyon, presumably to disturb the place with a view to purchasing it.
There he was alleged to have attacked her with a pick handle, crushing her skull.

The murderer was 25 years of age and had a wife and child.

BANK ROBBERED.

Watertown, S. D., Nov. 12.—The Bank of Norden, S. D., was dynamited today and $23,841 taken by the robbers, who escaped. The safe and building were wrecked.

DIDN'T COST A CENT.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 12.—William J. Gaynor, mayor-elect of New York, today filed a statement with the secretary of state in which he swears that he did not expend any money to further his election.

CAIRO GUARDED BY THE STATE TROOPS

Negro Alexander Is Taken Away Amid the Jeers and Hoots of Rioters.

Cairo, Ill., Nov. 12.—With the negro, Arthur Alexander, last of those arrested in connection with the murder here on Monday of Miss Anna Pelley, safe out of town, and some 350 members of the Fourth regiment of the Illinois national guard on duty in the streets and about the jail tonight, the mob spirit that has held Cairo for four days seems quelled.
No crowds are allowed to gather in any part of the city, and every known danger point is occupied by troops.

Alexander, who was reported to have been implicated in the murder of Miss Pelley by the Illinois state troopers, the negro, "Froggy" James, one of the victims of last night's mob, was sent to an unannounced point north of the city this afternoon. He was escorted from the jail to a special train by several companies of military, two of which, M. of Champaign and 2 of Ed-ingham, were assigned to the duty of guarding the train.

There were jeers and defiance for the militia from the small crowd that witnessed the departure. Some way or other the word had gone about the town that the negro was to be spirited away at 4 o'clock. It was half an hour later that the train left the jail yard and placed between the files of Company I of Vandallia.

Cries of the Mob.
"That's him," "he'll come back," "burn the nigger," "we'll get him yet," came from the spectators, who had been pressed back a half block from the train. As the train moved Company C of Carbondale and Company L of Olney.

The sets of four were in the advance of the prisoner, who was handcuffed and flanked by deputy sheriffs.
Two sets of four followed. As the Vandallia men swung north toward the railroad along Twentieth street, three companies cleared the street in advance of the escort and a like number followed in the rear, keeping back the crowds that were augmented at every cross street of the half mile march to the train.

The display of force was greater than the citizens of Cairo had anticipated and while there were murmurs all along the line of march, there was no effort to break the line. The brigadier General Frank P. Wells of Decatur, commanding the Second brigade of the guard, was in charge of the demonstrations and after it was over he said he was convinced that the display of military force had had a most salutary effect upon the town.

Plans Kept Secret.

General Wells and Colonel H. Shand of the adjutant general's office refused to tell what they knew of the plans for the safekeeping of the prisoner.
The will not be taken to Springfield and when he is taken off the train he will be at some point far enough north to prevent an attempt at recapture by a mob from this section," said Colonel Shand.

The local authorities left the disposition of the prisoner to the state officials and turned their attention to the other matters of the day. The last night, Coroner's verdicts were rendered on both the men lynched, in the case of the jury finding that the case to his death by injuries at the hands of persons unknown to us."

Recognized by Sheriff.

Early in the day Sheriff Davis, in an interview, told of recognizing several members of the mob that took James from his care last night. He named Mr. Logan of Cairo as one of these individuals and accused the postmaster and storekeeper of Karnak, Ill., as having accompanied some of the mob. He said that he had seen the sheriff in the vicinity of that town for the sheriff's party.

What steps will be taken to bring those implicated in the uprising to trial has not been determined.

Mayor Parsons said he was asleep and heard no shot or other sound to indicate that the city was in the hands of a mob.

Alexander M. Wilson, state's attorney, states that he was in several parts of the city trying to quell the mob spirit, but he would not say that he recognized any of its leaders.

Others Must Get Evidence.

"I am ready to do everything that my own office requires," said the state's attorney. "The only thing I am doing is a special grand jury is one to be decided by Judge W. N. Butler of the circuit court.
Two things must be remembered in connection with a Friday verdict. First, the majority vote prevails, the foreman of the jury having two votes if there be a tie. Second, the jury is not confined, but are permitted to return to their homes at night, where they are subjected to the power of the law. The influence of their wives and neighbors here, favor the acquittal of Madame Steinheil. The would make a dramatic climax, and it is expected would have a powerful influence on the jury, which is reported to be very divided."

MYSTERY CLEARED AWAY BY CONFESSION OF DAUGHTER

Madison, Wis., Jeweler Slain by Jealous Wife, Now Inmate of Insane Asylum.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Henry Brodenheyer, a jeweler of Madison, Wis., who was found dead near his home in the summer of 1906, and who was believed to have been murdered by a robber, was killed by his wife, Margaret, now a patient at the Dunning, Ill., insane asylum. This is the confession made today by the daughter, Clara Brodenheyer, to Assistant Chief of Police Schuetzler of Chicago.

The girl, who is 18 years old, related how she had aided in disposing of the body and how the crime had driven her mother insane. The confession followed weeks of investigation by Chicago detectives.

The girl, who swooned in Schuetzler's office after she told of the crime, was removed, by orders of Assistant Chief Schuetzler to the home of friends. She has not been arrested and probably will not be prosecuted.

Brodenheyer, who was 62 years old, had been the jealous wife of his wife. She satisfied herself of his infidelity and decided to kill him. She lured him on an abandoned slaughter house on an old farm near Madison under pretense of looking over the property. There she shot him, once behind the right ear and once in the forehead. He died almost instantly.

The daughter encountered her mother hastening from the slaughter house. Her mother said that Brodenheyer had been murdered, but when the girl accused her of killing him, Mrs. Broden-heyer confessed and asked her daughter to assist in concealing the crime.

They tied a rope around Brodenheyer's neck and attempted to strangle the body over a river, but the rope broke and they dragged the body into the roadway and concealed it behind a clump of bushes.

ABSOLUTION REMUSED.

Nantes, France, Nov. 12.—The Catholic clergy here today refused absolution to Catholic children in the public schools who are using the text-books interdicted by the church. This is in defiance of a warning sounded when the church put its ban upon certain books used in the public schools which were held to be offensive to Catholicism.
